SITUATION REPORT #73

1600 Hours Thursday, February 22, 2012

NOTE: This is the final sitrep for this event unless future developments warrant. The Joint Field Office closes on Friday, February 24.

SUMMARY

Gov. Bob McDonnell declared a state of emergency September 9 in response to heavy rain and flooding in Virginia resulting from remnants of Tropical Storm Lee primarily east of the I-95 corridor. As much as 20.96 inches of rain fell in the affected area September 8-9. Five fatalities were confirmed statewide.

Public Assistance

On October 7, the governor requested a 30-day deadline extension to validate current and additional damages with the Virginia Department of Transportation (VDOT) in anticipation of a request for a Public Assistance declaration. On October 13, FEMA extended the deadline to November 7 for submitting Preliminary Damage Assessments.

On November 17, FEMA approved the governor's request for a federal declaration for Public Assistance for the counties of Caroline, Essex, Fairfax, King and Queen, King George, Prince William and Westmoreland and the independent city of Alexandria.

About 86 percent of the estimated 121 project worksheets covering an estimated $10.9 million in damages have been submitted for processing. Funding totaling $3.8 has been approved for 33 projects. Completion of pending project worksheets is expected by the end of February.
